

Short Story Challenge

All hiccups have been solved for your trip, so you decide to treat yourself and join a local challenge. You are tasked with creating a new sequel to some american classic short stories. Choose a short story from this website (<https://americanliterature.com/short-stories/>) and using the language model of your choice, create a short summary and sequel to your chosen piece. Both the sequel and your summary should be written in Faroese (the native language of the Faroe Islands) to ensure all citizens can enjoy your work. Submit your summary, sequel and full chat logs to the instructor before the start of the next class.
